RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

PREAMBLE

The judicial system of the Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians (the “Tribe” or “Band”) is established, recognized, and confirmed as a separate branch of the Rincon Tribal Government. The Band’s judicial system is composed of the Rincon Trial Court administered by and through the Intertribal Court of Southern California (“ICSC”), the Court of Appeals within the ICSC, the Rincon Civil Trial Court, the Rincon Court of Appeals, and such other courts or decision-making bodies as the Tribal Council may designate.

On July 26, 2006, the Tribe’s Business Committee (“Tribal Council”) adopted Resolution 2006-15, which designated the Intertribal Court of Southern California (“ICSC”) to serve as the Tribe’s judicial branch pursuant to an Intergovernmental Agreement with the ICSC (the “IGA”). On July 7, 2017, the Tribal Council adopted Resolution 2017-33, which approved a Transition Plan pursuant to IGA § 1.4 that authorized a limited withdrawal of certain matters from the ICSC. Pursuant to the Transition Plan, on February 12, 2021, by its Resolution 2021-09, the Tribal Council established the Rincon Civil Trial Court, and adopted this Code of Civil Procedure, RTC § 3.310, and the Rincon Rules of Court, RTC § 3.320, as its governing codes and procedural rules. By its Resolution 2021-09, the Tribal Council also repealed and replaced those portions of the IGA defining subject matter jurisdiction of the ICSC (Ch.1, § 108, Part C as related to the subject matter jurisdiction of the ICSC). On March 14, 2019, pursuant to Resolution 2019-13, the Tribal Council established the Rincon Court of Appeals which is governed by the codes and procedural rules codified by RTC §3.800.

The Rincon Civil Trial Court shall be administered by the Rincon Judicial Administration Committee (“JAC”) pursuant to Tribal Council Resolution 2020-77.

(C) Service on an Incompetent Person. Service on a person who has been judicially declared to be insane or mentally incompetent shall be to his or her legal guardian, or if no guardian has been appointed, upon such person as the court designates.

(D) Service on a Corporation. Service on a corporation or partnership or other business entity shall be made by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to a partner, an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by law to receive service and the law so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant.

(E) Service on Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians. Service on the Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians, its enterprises, entities, officers, or agencies shall be made by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the Office of the Attorney General, provided, however, that this Section shall not be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians, its subsections, agents, agencies, enterprises, or officers.

(5) Service by Certified Mail.

Service may be made by certified mail with return receipt requested. A proof of service in accordance with paragraph (8) of this subsection must be filed with the court.

(6) Service by Electronic Means.

Electronic service is allowable if the defendant or the defendant's counsel consents in writing to such service. In such cases, electronic service is complete upon transmission, but is not effective if the serving party learns that it did not reach the person to be served. A proof of service in accordance with paragraph (8) of this subsection must be filed with the court.

(A) Upon plaintiff's application showing at least three unsuccessful attempts at personal service, the court shall issue an order allowing the plaintiff to publish the summons in a newspaper of general circulation where the person resides, or in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the person's last known residence.

(B) Publication shall be at least once a week for at least four successive weeks. Service on a slower publication schedule satisfies this Section if it is the fastest printing schedule available, the notice appears at least four times, and the notices are in consecutive issues.

(C) The plaintiff shall, on or before the date of the first publication, mail a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the defendant at the defendant's last known address, if any.

(9) Filing Proof of Service.

Plaintiff shall file a proof of service with the court within the earlier of seven (7) days of service or forty-five (45) days from the date the court clerk issues the summons according to Rincon Code of Civil Procedure Section 3.311(a)(3) unless time is otherwise extended to effect service.

(10) Service of Cross-Complaint.

A cross-complaint or counter-claim against a party who has appeared in the action must be accompanied by proof of service at the time it is filed. If the cross-complaint adds new parties, the cross-complaint must be served on all parties and proofs of service on the new parties must be filed within the earlier of seven (7) days of actual service or thirty (30) days of the filing of the cross-complaint or counter-claim.

(11) Modification of Timing; Application for Order Extending Time.

The court on the application of a party, may extend or otherwise modify the times provided in subsections (1) through (4), above. An application for a court order extending the time to serve a pleading must be filed before the time for service has elapsed. The application must be accompanied by a declaration showing why service has not been completed, documenting the efforts that have been made to complete service, and specifying the date by which service is proposed to be completed.

(12) Failure to Serve.

If a party fails to serve and file pleadings as required under this Rule, and has not obtained an order extending time to serve its pleadings, the court may issue an order to show cause why sanctions shall not be imposed.

(13) Timing for Service of Responsive Papers.

If not set forth in the order to show cause, responsive papers to an order to show cause issued under this Rule must be filed and served fourteen (14) days after service of the order, or at least 5 days before the hearing.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(c) Rules and Form of Pleadings and Motions.

(1) Pleadings Allowed.

There shall be a complaint, an answer or other responsive pleading, a cross-complaint, an answer or other responsive pleading to a cross-complaint, and any answer or other responsive pleading thereto, and any motion(s) and responses thereto. No other pleading shall be allowed, except with the permission of the court. The court may order a reply to an answer and may allow any amended and supplemental pleadings. The allegations in pleadings are to be liberally construed, with a view to creating substantial justice between the parties.

(2) Time to File an Answer or other Responsive Pleading.

A defendant must serve an answer or other responsive pleading within 30 days of being served with the summons and complaint, unless otherwise ordered by the court. A party must serve an answer or other responsive pleading to a cross-complaint within 30 days after being served with the cross-complaint, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The parties may agree to a 15-day extension of time to respond to a complaint or cross-complaint without a court order.

(3) General Rules of Pleading.

For purposes of this subsection (3), the term “complaint” includes a cross-complaint, the term “plaintiff” includes a cross-complainant, and the term “defendant” includes a cross-defendant or defendant in a counterclaim.

(A) Claims for Relief. A complaint shall contain:

- (i) A short and plain statement of the grounds for the court’s jurisdiction.
- (ii) A short and plain statement of the claim showing that the plaintiff is entitled to relief.
- (iii) A demand for judgment for the relief. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) Verification Not Required. A complaint is not required to be verified. If a party elects to verify a complaint, the answering party is under no obligation to respond with a verified pleading.

(C) Defenses; Answers and Denials.

(i) The answer to a complaint may contain:

a. The general or specific denial of the material allegations of the complaint controverted by the defendant.

b. A statement of any new matter constituting a defense.

(ii) Affirmative relief may be claimed in the answer.

(iii) A general denial is sufficient to answer, but only puts in issue the material allegations of the complaint. A defendant may state his or her denial of allegations positively or according to the information and belief of the defendant.

(iv) If the defendant has no information or belief upon the subject sufficient to enable defendant to answer an allegation of the complaint, defendant may so state in the answer and base the denial on that ground.

(v) The denials of the allegations controverted may be stated by reference to specific paragraphs or parts of the complaint, or by express admission of certain allegations of the complaint with a general denial of all of the allegations not so admitted, or by denial of certain allegations upon information and belief, or for lack of sufficient information or belief, with a general denial of all allegations not so denied or expressly admitted.

(vi) The defenses shall be separately stated, and the several defenses shall refer to the causes of action which they are intended to answer, in a manner by which they may be intelligibly distinguished.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(D) Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency.

(i) Each allegation in a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings are required.

(ii) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently, would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he or she has, regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or equitable grounds or both.

(E) Signing the Pleadings; Effect Thereof. Every pleading of a party represented by counsel shall be signed by at least one counsel, whose contact information shall be stated. A party who is not represented by counsel shall sign the pleadings and include contact information. The signature of counsel constitutes a certificate by him or her that he or she has read the pleading, that to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it, and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this Section, it may be stricken and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this Section, counsel may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is included.

(4) Cross-Complaints.

(A) Defendant's Claims Against Other Parties. A defendant may state as a cross-complaint a claim that, at the time of service of the complaint, the defendant has against the plaintiff or any other party only if:

(i) The claims and issues stated in the cross-complaint arise out of the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's complaint; and,

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(ii) Adjudication of the claims and issues raised in the cross-complaint would otherwise be permissible under Rincon Band Law or this CCP had the cross-complaint been brought as a separate action.

(B) Defendant’s Claims Against Third-Parties. A defendant may state as a cross-complaint a claim that – at the time of service of the complaint – the defendant has against a third-party only if:

(i) The claims and issues stated in the cross-complaint arise out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff’s complaint;

(ii) The cross-complaint does not require adding a third-party over whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction; and,

(iii) Adjudication of the claims and issues raised in the cross-complaint would otherwise be permissible under Rincon Band Law or this CCP had the cross-complaint been brought as a separate action.

(C) No Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. No cross-complaint may be stated against the Rincon Band that would otherwise be impermissible under Rincon Band Law, this CCP, or the doctrine of sovereign immunity from unconsented suit. Nothing contained in this Code is intended or shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Rincon Band.

(D) Time for Filing a Cross-Complaint; When Order Required.

(i) Cross-Complaint Against Party to the Complaint. A party may file a cross-complaint against another party before or at the same time as its answer as a matter of right.

(ii) Cross-Complaint Against Third Party. A party may file a cross-complaint against a third-party without leave of court at any time before the court sets the first trial date.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(iii) Leave of Court Otherwise Required. Except as provided in the preceding parts, leave of court must be obtained to file a cross-complaint.

(5) Motions, Petitions, and Other Papers.

(A) An application to the court for an order shall be by petition or motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefore, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. These requirements are fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the motion.

(B) Upon filing of a petition or motion, the court shall determine a suitable date for a hearing and issue a notice of hearing on the parties, unless a hearing is not requested or the court determines a hearing is unnecessary.

(C) A party receiving notice of a motion or hearing must serve and file its opposition, if any, no later than 14 days from the date the notice was served. Failure to oppose the motion may be deemed consent to the granting of the motion.

(D) If the court allows, a party who originally noticed a motion must serve and file its reply to the opposition, no later than 5 days from the date the opposition was served or as otherwise prescribed by the court.

(E) The provisions applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by this CCP.

(F) The court may order oral argument on the motion if requested by a party or on the court's own motion.

(G) The decision of the court shall be entered within 60 days after the hearing on the motion or, if no hearing is held, after the filing of the last paper.

(6) Form of Pleadings and Other Papers.

(A) Method of Preparation and Filing. Electronic copies shall be filed unless permitted by the Chief Judge.

(B) Designation of Defendant. When the name of the defendant is unknown to the plaintiff, the defendant may be designated in the pleadings or proceeding by any name. When his true name is discovered the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(7) Conformed Copies of Pleadings. Upon receipt of a filing, the Court clerk shall distribute a conformed copy of the pleading to all counsel of record and any self-represented party.

(8) Amended and Supplemental Pleadings. A party may amend its pleading only with the opposing party's stipulation or the court's leave, which should be freely granted when justice so requires.

(d) Time.

(1) Computation of Time.

Time shall be computed as follows:

(A) Exclude the day of the event that triggers the deadline.

(B) Count every day, including Saturdays, Sundays, and Rincon Band holidays.

(C) Include the last day of the deadline, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or Rincon Band holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Rincon Band holiday.

(2) Extension of Time.

The court for good cause may (A) with or without motion or notice, order a period for filing pleadings or responses enlarged if a request is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (B) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permitting the act to be done, where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect and with respect for judicial efficiency, unless specifically prohibited under this CCP.

(3) Extension of Time for Responsive Pleadings.

The parties may stipulate without leave of court to one 15-day extension beyond the 30-day time period prescribed for the response after service of the initial complaint.

(4) Notice of Hearing on Motions.

Notice of hearing on a motion shall be served on the parties at least 21 days prior to the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is authorized by this CCP or by order of the court.

(5) Orders to Show Cause.

If the court determines a hearing is necessary, an order to show cause shall be served at least seven days prior to the time specified for the hearing.

(6) Additional Time after Service by Mail, Overnight Delivery Service, or by Electronic Means.

Whenever a party is required to do some act within a prescribed time after receiving service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served by U.S. mail, 5 days shall be added to the prescribed time. If the notice or paper is served by overnight mail or delivery service (or by electronic means by agreement of the parties), 2 days shall be added to the prescribed time.

(e) Case Management Conference and Designation of Civil Actions.

(1) Case Management Conference.

(A) The court shall, within 90 days of the commencement of actions, hold a case management conference at which all parties, and their attorney(s) of record, will be required to appear. The purpose of the case management conference is for the court to conduct an intensive review of the case, and to discuss and implement appropriate litigation boundaries and trial timelines (including deadlines for the exchange of witness lists and expert witness information, completion of fact discovery, and completion of expert discovery) with the parties. The court shall establish early and continuing controls (such as scheduling orders, order of depositions, and the like) so that the case will not be protracted because of lack of management. The court will establish appropriate controls to discourage wasteful pretrial activities.

(B) The court will send notice of the case management conference to the parties a minimum of 30 days prior thereto. If the court does not set a trial date at the case management conference, the court shall set a date for a continued case management conference at a date and time it deems appropriate.

(C) At the case management conference, the court may order a case settlement conference to be held.

(2) Meet and Confer by the Parties.

No later than 15 days prior to the case management conference, the parties (and/or their respective counsel) shall meet in person or by telephone to discuss the topics set forth in Rincon Rules of Court, RTC § 3.324(c) and provide the discovery disclosure pursuant to Rincon Rules of Court, RTC § 3.313(d).

(3) Matters for Consideration at the Trial Readiness Conference.

At the trial readiness conference, the court may consider and take appropriate action to ensure the parties are prepared for trial and to ensure the trial proceeds expediently. The court may also consider trial settlement related matters and, if appropriate, order a settlement conference upon application by the parties or on the court's own motion. The court and the parties are expected to consider and take appropriate action on any or all of the matters as set forth in Rincon Rules of Court, RTC §3.326.

(4) Pretrial Orders.

Following the trial readiness conference, the court shall issue an order reciting the action taken. The parties will be notified in open court or by mail or by electronic means of the date and time of the trial and/or pretrial proceedings.

(5) Notice of Settlement.

The parties shall notify the court immediately if the case settles, so that the trial date may be vacated.

(6) Sanctions for Failure to Comply with Trial Readiness Orders.

The court may impose appropriate sanctions on any party who fails to comply with Trial Readiness Orders.

(f) Offers to Compromise.

(1) Offers by a Party to Compromise.

(A) Not less than 10 days prior to commencement of trial, any party may serve an offer in writing upon any other party to the action to allow judgment to be taken or an award to be entered in accordance with the terms and conditions stated at that time. The written offer shall include a statement of the offer, containing the terms and conditions of the judgment or award, and a provision that allows the accepting party to indicate acceptance of the offer by signing a statement that the offer is accepted. Any acceptance of the offer, whether made on the document containing the offer or on a separate document of acceptance, shall be in writing and shall be signed by counsel for the accepting party or, if not represented by counsel, by the accepting party.

(i) If the offer is accepted, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed and the clerk or the judge shall enter judgment accordingly.

(ii) If the offer is not accepted prior to trial or within 30 days after it is made, whichever occurs first, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn, and cannot be given in evidence upon the trial.

(iii) For purposes of this section, a trial shall be deemed to be commenced at the beginning of the opening statement of the plaintiff or counsel, or, if there is no opening statement, at the time of the administering of the oath or affirmation to the first witness, or the introduction of any evidence.

(B) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award than the settlement offer, the plaintiff shall not recover his or her costs and shall pay the defendant’s costs from the time of the offer. In addition, in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court, in its discretion, may require the plaintiff to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, preparation for trial, or during trial, of the case by the defendant. In determining whether the plaintiff obtains a more favorable judgment, the court shall exclude the costs.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

(C) If an offer made by a plaintiff is not accepted and the defendant fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court, in its discretion, may require the defendant to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, preparation for trial, or during trial, of the case by the plaintiff, in addition to plaintiff’s costs.

(D) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the costs under this Section, from the time of the offer, shall be deducted from any damages awarded in favor of the plaintiff. If the costs awarded under this Section exceed the amount of the damages awarded to the plaintiff the net amount shall be awarded to the defendant and judgment or award shall be entered accordingly.

(E) For purposes of this Section, “plaintiff” includes a cross-complainant; and “defendant” includes a cross-defendant. Any judgment or award entered pursuant to this Section shall be deemed to be a compromise settlement.

§ 3.312 PARTIES

(a) Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity.

(1) Real Party in Interest.

Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by law may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

(2) Actions by Personal Representatives; Setting Aside Judgment.

Actions for the recovery of personal injury damages may be commenced by an executor, administrator, or guardian appointed pursuant to Rincon Band law, or the law of the applicable jurisdiction, in the same manner as if commenced by the testator or intestate, and judgment therein shall be as conclusive as if rendered in favor of or against the testator or intestate. The judgment may be set aside upon the application of any interested person for fraud or collusion on the part of the executor, administrator, or guardian.

(3) Infants or Incompetent Persons.

Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, or similar fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person.

§ 3.313 DISCLOSURES AND DISCOVERY

(a) Scope of Discovery.

(1) Discovery in Civil Actions.

In a Civil Action, the court has discretion to impose whatever limitations on discovery it deems just and proper.

(2) Extent of Discovery Allowed.

Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with this CCP, parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not grounds for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

(3) Application of Evidentiary Privileges and Protections.

Information subject to an evidentiary privilege as recognized in the Rincon Rules of Evidence is not subject to discovery unless the court determines: (a) the requested information is directly relevant to the subject matter of the pending action, or a claim or defense of any other party; (b) the party seeking the discovery will suffer unfair prejudice if disclosure is not ordered; and (c) the prejudice suffered by any party if disclosure is not ordered substantially outweighs the interest of the party asserting the privilege in protecting the information.

(4) Trial Preparation Materials.

A party may not discover documents and tangible things that are prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or its representative. If the court orders discovery of those materials, it must protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of a party's attorney or other representative concerning the litigation.

(c) Reserved for later use.

(d) Mandatory Disclosures.

(1) Initial Disclosures.

At least 15 days before Case Management Conference, the parties must disclose to one another the following information:

(A) The name, address, and telephone number of every witness likely to have discoverable information – along with the subjects of that information – that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment;

(B) A copy—or a description by category and location—of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(C) A computation of each category of damages claimed by the disclosing party—who must also make available for inspection and copying the documents or other evidentiary material, unless privileged or protected from disclosure, on which each computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered.

(D) For inspection and copying as under Section 3.313(h), any insurance agreement under which an insurance business may be liable to satisfy all or part of a possible judgment in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.

(2) Disclosure of Expert Witness Information.

(A) In General. A party must disclose to the other parties the identity of any witness it may use at trial to present expert witness testimony.

(B) Witnesses Who Must Provide a Written Report. Unless otherwise stipulated or ordered by the court, this disclosure must be accompanied by a written report—prepared and signed by the witness—if the witness is one retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony in the case or one whose duties as the party’s employee regularly involve giving expert testimony. The report must contain:

(i) A complete statement of all opinions the witness will express and the basis and reasons for them;

(ii) The facts or data considered by the witness in forming them;

(iii) Any exhibits that will be used to summarize or support them;

(iv) The witness’s qualifications, including a list of all publications authored in the previous 10 years;

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(v) A list of all other cases in which, during the previous 4 years, the witness testified as an expert at trial or by deposition; and

(vi) A statement of the compensation to be paid to the witness for the study and testimony in the case.

(C) Witnesses Who Do Not Provide a Written Report. Unless otherwise stipulated or ordered by the court, if the witness is not required to provide a written report, this disclosure must state:

(i) The subject matter on which the witness is expected to present evidence; and

(ii) A summary of the facts and opinions to which the witness is expected to testify.

(D) Time to Disclose Expert Testimony. A party must make these disclosures at the times and in the sequence that the court orders. Absent a stipulation or a court order, the disclosures must be made:

(i) At least 90 days before the date set for trial or for the case to be ready for trial; or

(ii) If the evidence is intended solely to contradict or rebut evidence on the same subject matter identified by another party in their expert witness disclosure, within 30 days after the other party's disclosure.

(E) Supplementing the Disclosure. A party must supplement its disclosure in a timely manner if the party learns that in some material respect the disclosure is incomplete or incorrect, and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing. Failure to do so may result in sanctions.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(3) Pre-Trial Disclosures.

(A) In General. In addition to all other mandatory disclosures discussed in this Section, a party must provide to the other parties and promptly file the following information about the evidence that the party may present at trial other than solely for impeachment:

(i) The name and, if not previously provided, the address and telephone number of each witness—separately identifying those the party expects to present and those it may call if the need arises.

(ii) The designation of those witnesses whose testimony the party expects to present by deposition and, if not taken stenographically, a transcript of the pertinent parts of the deposition; and

(iii) An identification of each document or other exhibit, including summaries of other evidence—separately identifying those items the party expects to offer and those it may offer if the need arises.

(B) Time for Pretrial Disclosures; Objections. Unless the court orders otherwise, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial. Within 14 days after they are made, unless the court sets a different time, a party may serve and promptly file a list of the following objections: any objections to the use of a deposition designated by another party; and any objection, together with the grounds for it, that may be made to the admissibility of materials intended to be offered by the opposing party at time of trial. An objection not so made – except as to relevance, prejudice, confusion or waste of time – is waived unless excused by the court for good cause.

(4) Form of Disclosures.

Unless the court orders otherwise, all disclosures under this Section must be in writing, signed by the party or its counsel of record, and served on all parties.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(e) Depositions.

(1) When Depositions May be Taken.

After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant, except that leave is not required if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in this CCP.

(2) Notice of Deposition.

A party desiring to take the deposition of any person or party upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

(A) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff prior to the expiration of 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant if the notice (a) states that the person to be examined is about to leave the Rincon Indian Reservation or San Diego County, and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the 30-day period, and (b) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff or his counsel shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true.

(B) On notice to all parties, a deposition may be recorded by video.

(C) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with paragraph (h) of this Section 3.313 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition, provided that there is 30 days advance notice to allow for the production of documents.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(D) A party may in his notice name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and designate with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. The organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which he will testify. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization.

(E) The notice must be served at least 10 days before the date set for the deposition unless including a request for documents; in those cases, notice must be served at least 30 days in advance. Extensions of time apply where notices are served by mail: 5 days if the address and place of mailing are in California, 10 days if either is in another state, and 20 days if either is in another country.

(3) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections.

(A) Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Rincon Rules of Evidence. The examination shall commence at the time and place specified in the notice or within thirty minutes thereafter and, unless otherwise stipulated or ordered, will be continued on successive days, except Saturdays, Sundays, and Rincon Band holidays until completed. Any party not present within thirty minutes following the time specified in the notice of taking deposition waives any objection that the deposition was taken without his presence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. A certified court reporter shall serve as the officer. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered by the court. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections.

(4) Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination.

At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order.

(5) Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing.

When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read by the witness, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 30 days of its submission to the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as though signed unless on a motion to suppress, the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(6) Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing; Preservation of Notes and Tapes of Depositions.

(A) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. The officer shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked “Deposition of [here insert the name of witness]” and shall promptly file it with the court.

(B) Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that (a) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if all parties are afforded fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals, and (b) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

(C) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefore, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(D) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

(E) The officer shall preserve and retain for a period of 10 years all original notes and stenographic tapes taken or recorded by him during deposition, which shall be retained by the officer in such place and manner as to ensure their availability to the court or any party upon request.

(7) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena, Expenses.

(A) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by counsel pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by the other party and counsel in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon the witness and the witness, because of such failure, does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by counsel because the party or counsel expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by the party and counsel in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(8) Travel Limits on Depositions.

The deposition of any expert to be deposed shall be taken at a place that is within the Rincon Indian Reservation or within San Diego County or by video conference, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. On motion for a protective order by the party designating an expert witness, and on a showing of exceptional hardship, the court may order that the deposition be taken at a more distant place from the courthouse.

(9) Deposition of Expert Witnesses.

(A) Except as provided in subsection (E), below, this Section applies to an expert witness, other than a party or an employee of a party, who is any of the following:

(i) Any natural person identified by a party whose oral or deposition testimony in the form of expert opinion any party expects to offer in evidence at trial or has been retained by a party for the purpose of forming and expressing an opinion in anticipation of the litigation or in preparation for the trial of the action.

(ii) A treating physician and surgeon or other treating health care practitioner who is to be asked during the deposition to express opinion testimony, including opinion or factual testimony regarding the past or present diagnosis or prognosis made by the practitioner or the reasons for a particular treatment decision made by the practitioner, but not including testimony requiring only the reading of words and symbols contained in the relevant medical record or, if those words and symbols are not legible to the deponent, the approximation by the deponent of what those words or symbols are.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(iii) An architect, professional engineer, or licensed land surveyor who was involved with the original project design or survey for which that person is asked to express an opinion within the person's expertise and relevant to the action or proceeding.

(B) A party desiring to depose an expert witness described in subsection (A), above, shall pay the expert's reasonable and customary hourly or daily fee for any time spent at the deposition from the time noticed in the deposition subpoena, or from the time of the arrival of the expert witness should that time be later than the time noticed in the deposition subpoena, until the time the expert witness is dismissed from the deposition, regardless of whether the expert is actually deposed by any party attending the deposition.

(C) If any counsel representing the expert or a non-noticing party is late to the deposition, the expert's reasonable and customary hourly or daily fee for the time period determined from the time noticed in the deposition subpoena until the counsel's late arrival, shall be paid by that tardy counsel.

(D) Notwithstanding subsection (C) above, the hourly or daily fee charged to the tardy counsel shall not exceed the fee charged to the party who retained the expert, except where the expert donated services to a charitable or other nonprofit organization.

(E) A daily fee shall only be charged for a full day of attendance at a deposition or where the expert was required by the deposing party to be available for a full day and the expert necessarily had to forgo all business that the expert would otherwise have conducted that day but for the request that the expert be available all day for the scheduled deposition.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(10) Travel Expenses for Experts.

The party desiring to depose an expert is responsible for any fee charged by the expert for preparing for a deposition and for traveling to and from the place of the deposition, as well as for any travel expenses of the expert.

(11) Payment for Expert at Time of Deposition.

(A) The party taking the deposition of an expert witness shall accompany the service of the deposition notice with a tender of the expert's fee based on the anticipated length of the deposition, or tender that fee at the commencement of the deposition and travel costs if any.

(B) The expert's fee shall be delivered to the attorney for the party designating the expert.

(C) The service of a proper deposition notice accompanied by the tender of the expert witness fee described in this Section is effective to require the party employing or retaining the expert to produce the expert for the deposition.

(D) If the deposition of the expert takes longer than anticipated, the party giving notice of the deposition shall pay the balance of the expert's fee within five days of receipt of an itemized statement from the expert.

(E) If the party noticing the deposition fails to tender the expert's fee and travel costs if any under this Section, the expert shall not be deposed at that time unless the parties stipulate otherwise.

(12) Challenging Expert Fees.

(A) If a party desiring to take the deposition of an expert witness under this Section deems that the hourly or daily fee of that expert for providing deposition testimony is unreasonable, that party may move for an order setting the compensation of that expert. Notice of this motion shall also be given to the expert.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) A motion under subsection (A), above, shall be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. In any attempt at an informal resolution, either the party or the expert shall provide the other with all of the following:

(i) Proof of the ordinary and customary fee actually charged and received by that expert for similar services provided outside the subject litigation.

(ii) The total number of times the presently demanded fee has ever been charged and received by that expert.

(iii) The frequency and regularity with which the presently demanded fee has been charged and received by that expert within the two-year period preceding the hearing on the motion.

(C) In addition to any other facts or evidence, the expert or the party designating the expert shall provide, and the court's determination as to the reasonableness of the fee shall be based on, proof of the ordinary and customary fee actually charged and received by that expert for similar services provided outside the subject litigation.

(D) In an action filed, the expert or the party designating the expert shall also provide, and the court's determination as to the reasonableness of the fee shall also be based on, both of the following:

(i) The total number of times the presently demanded fee has ever been charged and received by that expert.

(ii) The frequency and regularity with which the presently demanded fee has been charged and received by that expert within the two-year period preceding the hearing on the motion.

(E) The court may also consider the ordinary and customary fees charged by similar experts for similar services within the relevant community and any other factors the court deems necessary or appropriate to make its determination.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(F) Upon a determination that the fee demanded by that expert is unreasonable, and based upon the evidence and factors considered, the court shall set the fee of the expert providing testimony.

(G) The court shall impose a monetary sanction against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to set the expert witness fee, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) Depositions in Court Proceedings.

(1) Use of Depositions.

At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the Rincon Rules of Evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

(A) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(B) The deposition of a party or of any one who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(C) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (a) that the witness is dead; or (b) that the witness is at a greater distance than 50 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is not within the Rincon Indian Reservation, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (c) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (d) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (e) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(D) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

(E) Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of any state or Indian tribe has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefore.

(2) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination.

See § 3.314.

(3) Objections to Admissibility.

Subject to the provisions of this CCP, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(4) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

(A) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(B) As to Disqualification of Officer or Reporter. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer or reporter before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(C) As to Taking of Deposition.

(i) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(ii) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(D) As to Completion and Return of Depositions. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer or reporter are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

(g) Interrogatories to Parties.

(1) Availability; Procedure for Use.

Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) Answers and Objections to Interrogatories.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the party or counsel making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections, if any, within 30 days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

(3) Scope; Use at Trial.

Interrogatories may relate to any matter within the scope of permissible discovery, and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Rincon Rules of Evidence. An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or other later time.

(4) Option to Produce Business Records.

Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit, or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract, or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries.

(h) Production of Documents and Things and Entry Upon Land for Inspection.

(1) Scope.

Any party may serve on any other party a request either (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phonorecords, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated through detection devices into reasonably usable form when translation is practicably necessary) or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of permissible discovery and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of permissible discovery.

(2) Procedure.

(A) The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon the party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

(B) The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within 30 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(3) Persons not Parties.

This Section does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

(i) Physical and Mental Examination of Persons.

(1) Order for Examination.

When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(2) Report of Examining Physician.

(A) If requested by the party against whom an order is made or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery, the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless in the case of a report of examination of a person not a party, the party shows that he is unable to obtain it.

(B) The court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the court may exclude the testimony if offered at trial.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(C) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he or she may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him or her in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

(D) This subsection (2) applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise; however, this subsection does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of any other rule.

(3) Alternate Procedure: Notice of Examination; Objections.

(A) When the parties agree that a mental or physical examination is appropriate but do not agree as to the examining physician, the party desiring the examination may seek the examination by giving reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall specify the name of the person to be examined, the time, place and scope of the examination, and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(B) Upon motion by a party or by the person to be examined, and for good cause shown, the court may, in addition to other orders appropriate under subsection (A) of this Section, make an order that the examination be made by a physician other than the one specified in the notice. If a party after being served with a proper notice under this subsection does not make a motion under this Section and fails to appear for the examination or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control, the court may on motion make such orders in regard to the failure as are just.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

(j) Requests for Admission.

(1) Request for Admission.

(A) For the purposes of the pending action only, a party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission of the truth of any matter(s) within the scope of permissible discovery set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon the party. Each matter for which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within 30 days after service of the request, or, in the case of a defendant, within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his or her counsel. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his or her answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, the answering party shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless the answering party states that he or she has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the answering party is insufficient to enable an admission or denial. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; the answering party may, subject to the provisions of this Section, deny the matter or set forth reasons why the answering party cannot admit or deny it.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial.

(2) Effect of Admission.

A matter admitted under this Section is conclusively established unless the court, on motion, permits the admission to be withdrawn or amended. The court may permit withdrawal or amendment if it would promote the presentation of the merits of the action and if the court is not persuaded that it would prejudice the requesting party in maintaining or defending the action on the merits. An admission under this Section is not an admission for any other purpose and cannot be used against the party in any other proceeding.

(k) Discovery Sanctions.

(1) Motion for Order Compelling Discovery.

A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(A) Meet and Confer. Prior to filing a Motion for an Order to Compel Discovery, the parties shall meet to discuss and make good faith attempts to settle each issue to be presented in the Motion.

(B) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under this CCP, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under this CCP, or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under this CCP, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under this CCP, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before applying for an order. The motion must be made within forty-five (45) days of the challenged response or failure to respond.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(C) Evasive or incomplete answer. For purposes of this Section, an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(2) Failure to Comply with Order.

(A) Refusal to Testify. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court, the failure may be considered a contempt of court.

(B) Failure to Obey Order. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, the court may issue appropriate orders regarding the failure, which may include the following options:

(i) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made, or any other designated facts shall be deemed established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order.

(ii) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting such party from introducing matters in evidence.

(iii) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party.

(iv) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination; and,

(v) Where a party has failed to comply with an order requiring such party to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (i),(ii), and (iii) of this subsection, unless the party failing to comply shows that such party is unable to produce such person for examination.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(3) Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection.

If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated to testify on behalf of a party, fails (1) to appear before the officer or reporter who is to take the deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under this CCP, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection, after proper service of the request, the court on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just.

§ 3.314 TRIALS

(a) Bench Trial.

(1) Trial by Judge.

All cases shall be tried by a judge.

(2) Setting Trial Date.

A trial date shall be scheduled within 120 days of the Case Management Conference, unless the court for good cause orders a later trial date.

(3) Time for Decision.

The decision of the court shall be given within 60 days after submission of the action. Where post trial briefs are filed, the action shall not be deemed submitted until the time for filing the briefs has expired.

(b) Dismissal of Actions.

(1) Dismissal by Plaintiff.

The plaintiff, without court order, may dismiss an action any time before the defendant files an answer or a motion for summary judgment.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) By the Court.

Except as otherwise provided in this Section, the plaintiff may not dismiss an action except by court order, upon a finding that the terms of the dismissal are in the interests of justice. If the defendant files a counterclaim before the court files an order to dismiss, the court shall retain the original action unless the counterclaim has an independent basis for subject matter jurisdiction.

(3) By the Defendant.

The defendant may request an order of dismissal if the plaintiff fails to prosecute the case in a reasonably expedient manner or comply with this CCP.

(c) Consolidation; Separate Trials.

(1) Consolidation.

When there are pending actions involving a common question of law or fact, the court may order all the actions consolidated, and it may issue orders to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(2) Separate Trials.

The court, for convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will promote judicial economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, crossclaim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, crossclaims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues.

(d) Order of Trial.

(1) Order of Trial by the Court.

The trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the court for good cause stated in the record, otherwise directs:

(A) The plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel may make a statement of the case to the court;

(B) The defendant or defendant's counsel may make a statement of the case to the court, but may defer making such statement until after the close of the evidence by the plaintiff.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(C) Other parties admitted to the action or their counsel may make a statement of their cases to the court, but they may defer making such statement until after the close of the evidence by the plaintiff and defendant. The statement of such parties shall be in the order directed by the court.

(D) The plaintiff shall then introduce evidence.

(E) The defendant shall then introduce evidence.

(F) The other parties, if any, shall then introduce evidence in the order directed by the court.

(G) The parties may then introduce rebutting evidence on each side in the respective orders set forth in this Section.

(H) The plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel may make a closing argument to the court.

(I) The defendant or defendant's counsel may make a closing argument to the court.

(J) Other parties admitted to the action or their counsel may make a closing argument to the court.

(K) The plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel may make a rebuttal argument to the court.

(L) The statements to the court shall be confined to a concise and brief statement of the facts which the parties propose to establish by evidence during the trial, and any party may decline to make such statement.

(e) Taking Testimony.

(1) Definition of Witness.

A witness is a person whose declaration under oath or affirmation is received as evidence for any purpose. Such declaration may be made on oral examination or by deposition or affidavit.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath.

Whenever under this Section an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation to tell the truth may be accepted.

(3) Evidence on Motion.

When a motion is based on facts not appearing in the record, the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties; however, the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

(1) Subpoena for Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance.

Except as otherwise provided by the Rincon Rules of Court, every subpoena shall be signed by a Judge under the seal of the court. The subpoena shall state the name of the court and title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at time and place specified.

(2) Subpoena for Production of Documentary Evidence.

A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein, but the court, upon motion made promptly, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive. In the alternative, the court may condition denial of the motion to quash or modify the subpoena upon the advancement by the person on whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(3) Failure to Produce Documentary Evidence.

Upon failure of a party to comply with a subpoena, the court shall determine whether secondary evidence of the books, papers, documents or tangible things may be given at the trial. Should the court determine that secondary evidence is not sufficient, the court may issue an order of contempt and issue any further orders it deems necessary to elicit adequate evidence.

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(4) Service of Subpoena.

A subpoena shall be served by any person who is at least 18 years of age and is not a party to the civil action. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to the person the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by applicable law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Tribe, or an officer, or agency, or enterprise thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

(A) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of the court of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination.

(B) Within 10 days after the service of a subpoena or on or before the appearance/production date if the return date is less than 10 days after service, the person to whom the subpoena is directed may serve upon the party or counsel serving the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any and all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the court.

(C) The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order to produce the designated materials at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

(D) A person served on the Rincon Indian Reservation may be requested to attend an examination at any reasonable location within the Rincon Indian Reservation. A person served outside of the Rincon Indian Reservation may be required to attend an examination within or outside of the Rincon Indian Reservation, as long as such place is within forty miles from the place of service, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of court.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(6) Subpoena for Hearing or Trial.

At the request of any party, subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued by the court. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place the witness is located.

(7) Contempt.

Any person who fails to obey a lawfully served subpoena without adequate excuse may be deemed in contempt of the court.

(g) Findings and Conclusions by the Court.

(1) Findings and Conclusions.

(A) In General. The court must find facts specifically and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the presentation of the evidence or shall appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court. Where the court issues an opinion or memorandum of decision, it shall be filed no later than sixty (60) days from the date of the trial or hearing, or sixty (60) days after post-trial briefing is completed.

(B) Interlocutory Injunction. In granting or refusing an interlocutory injunction, the court must similarly state the findings and conclusions that support its action.

(C) For a Motion. The court shall find facts specifically and state its conclusions of law when ruling on a motion.

(D) Questioning the Evidentiary Support. A party may later question the sufficiency of the evidence supporting the findings, whether or not the party requested findings, objected to them, moved to amend them, or moved for partial findings.

(E) Setting Aside the Findings. Findings of fact, whether based on oral testimony or other evidence, must not be set aside unless clearly erroneous.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) Amended or Additional Findings.

On a party’s motion filed no later than 21 days after the entry of judgment, the court may amend its findings--or make additional findings--and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may accompany a motion for a new trial.

(3) Judgment on Partial Findings.

If a party has been fully heard on an issue and the court finds against the party on that issue, the court may enter judgment against that party on a claim or defense that can be maintained or defeated only with a favorable finding on that issue. The court may, however, decline to render any judgment until the close of the evidence. A judgment on partial findings must be supported by findings of fact and conclusions of law.

§ 3.315 JUDGMENT

(a) Judgments and Costs.

(1) Definition; Form.

“Judgment” as used in this CCP includes a decree and an order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.

(2) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties.

When more than one claim for relief is presented in a complaint or cross-complaint, or when multiple parties are involved, the court may direct the entry of final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

(3) Demand for Judgment.

A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed the amount prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(4) Entry of Judgment after Death of Party.

Judgment may be entered after the death of a party upon an issue of fact rendered in the party's lifetime.

(5) Costs.

Unless otherwise provided under the laws of the Rincon Band, the court may award costs to a prevailing party. A party who claims costs shall file a statement of his costs and serve a copy thereof on the opposing party. The statement shall be filed and served within 15 days after judgment is entered, unless for good cause shown the time is extended by the court. At any time within 15 days after receipt of the copy of the statement of costs, the opposing party may file objections to the statement serving a copy thereof on the party claiming such costs. The court shall rule upon the objections and by its order modify the statement of costs to the extent that it requires modification.

(1) Request for Entry of Default.

If a responsive pleading is not served within the time limits specified in this Rule and no extension of time has been granted, the plaintiff must file a request for entry of default within 10 days after the time for service has elapsed and serve a copy of the request on the defendant. The court may issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed if the plaintiff fails to timely file the request for the entry of default.

(2) Entry.

When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by this CCP and that fact is entered into the record by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter such party's default.

(3) Judgment by Default.

Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(A) By motion. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the court upon motion of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, so long as the defendant has been defaulted for failure to appear and is not an infant or incompetent person. Plaintiff shall serve a copy of the motion on defendant.

(B) By hearing. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment shall apply to the court, but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, the party or the party's representative if appearing by representative, shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to determine the amount of damages, establish the truth of any averment by evidence, or make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper.

(C) When a default is entered, the party who requested the entry of default must obtain a default judgment against the defaulting party within 45 days after the default was entered, unless the court has granted an extension of time. The court may issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed if that party fails to obtain entry of judgment against a defaulting party or to request an extension of time to apply for a default judgment within that time.

(4) Documents to Be Submitted.

A party seeking a default judgment on declarations must include the following in the documents filed with the clerk:

(A) A brief summary of the case identifying the parties and the nature of plaintiff's claim;

(B) Declarations or other admissible evidence in support of the judgment requested;

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

- (C) Interest computations as necessary;
 - (D) A memorandum of costs and disbursements;
 - (E) A declaration of nonmilitary status for each defendant against whom judgment is sought;
 - (F) A proposed form of judgment;
 - (G) A dismissal of all parties against whom judgment is not sought or an application for separate judgment against specified parties whenever the court in its discretion determines a several judgment is proper, supported by a showing of grounds for each judgment;
 - (H) Exhibits as necessary; and
 - (I) A request for attorney fees if allowed by tribal law or by the agreement of the parties.
- (5) Fee Schedule.
A court may establish a schedule of attorney’s fees to be used by that court in determining the reasonable amount of attorney’s fees to be allowed in the case of a default judgment.
- (6) Costs on Default.
A party seeking a default judgment who claims costs must request costs at the time of applying for the judgment.
- (7) Setting Aside Default.
For good cause shown, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside. The party seeking to set aside a default must file a motion to set aside the default promptly upon discovery of the default, and in no event may default be set aside more than 1 year after the default was entered.
- (8) Plaintiffs, and Cross-Complainants.
The provisions of this Section apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff or a cross-complainant.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(9) Judgment against the Rincon Band.

No judgment by default shall be entered against the Rincon Band or an officer, agency, enterprise, or entity thereof unless the claimant establishes jurisdiction and a claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the court. This Section shall not be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Rincon Band.

(10) Judgment when Service by Publication; Statement of Evidence.

Where service of process has been made by publication and no answer has been filed within the time prescribed by law, judgment shall be rendered as in other cases, but a certificate of publication provided by the publisher shall be filed as a part of the record.

(c) Summary Judgments.

(1) For Plaintiff.

A party seeking to recover upon a complaint or cross-complaint, or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of 20 days from the service of process upon the adverse party or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any party thereof.

(2) For Defendant.

A party against whom a complaint or cross-complaint is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

(3) Motion and Proceedings Thereon.

Upon timely request by any party, the court shall set a time for hearing of the motion. If no request is made, the court may, in its discretion, set a time for such hearing. Notice of the motion and supporting papers shall be served on all other parties to the action at least 21 days before the time appointed for hearing the motion. A party opposing the motion must file affidavits, memoranda or both not less than 10 days prior to the hearing the motion. The moving party shall have 5 days thereafter in which to serve reply memoranda and affidavits. The foregoing time periods may be shortened or enlarged by the court or by agreement of the parties (subject to court approval). The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answer to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(4) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion.

If, on motion under this Section, judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(5) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required.

Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this CCP, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the pleading, but in responding, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in the CCP, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue of fact for trial. If the opposing party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against the opposing party.

(6) Additional Evidence Necessary.

If a party opposing the motion cannot, for reasons stated, present by affidavit facts essential to justify the opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(7) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith.

Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this Section are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party submitting the affidavit(s) to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

(d) Declaratory Judgments.

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment shall be in accordance with this CCP. The existence of another remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

(1) Entry.

All judgments shall be in writing and signed by a judge. The filing of the judgment with the clerk constitutes entry of such judgment. The judgment is not effective before such entry, except that in such circumstances and on such notice as justice may require, the court may direct the entry of a judgment nunc pro tunc, and the reasons for such direction shall be entered into the record. The entry of judgment shall not be delayed for taxing costs.

(2) Enforcement of Judgment.

The court shall cause the judgment to be executed.

(3) Objections to Form.

(A) In case of a judgment other than for money or costs, or that all relief be denied, the judgment shall not be settled, approved and signed until the expiration of five days after the proposed form thereof has been served upon opposing counsel unless the opposing party or his or her counsel sooner provides an approval as to form. The five-day provision may be waived by the court only upon an express written finding by minute order or otherwise of necessity to shorten time or to enter judgment without notice.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) If objection to the form of the judgment is made within the time provided in paragraph (A), above, of this subsection, the matter shall be presented to the court for determination.

(C) The requirements of this Section shall not apply to parties in default.

(f) New Trials and Amendments of Judgments.

(1) Procedure; Grounds.

A decision or judgment may be vacated and a new trial granted on motion of the aggrieved party for any of the following causes materially affecting the party's rights:

(A) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, or abuse of discretion, whereby the moving party was deprived of a fair trial.

(B) Misconduct of the prevailing party.

(C) Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence.

(D) Material evidence, newly discovered, which with reasonable diligence could not have been discovered and produced at the trial.

(E) Excessive or insufficient damages.

(F) Error in the admission or rejection of evidence or other errors of law occurring at the trial or during the progress of the action.

(G) That the decision, finding of fact, or judgment is not justified by the evidence or is contrary to law.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) Contents of Motion; Amendment; Rulings Reviewable.

(A) The motion for new trial shall be in writing, shall specify generally the grounds upon which the motion is based, and may be amended at any time before it is ruled upon by the court.

(B) Upon the general ground that the court erred in admitting or rejecting evidence, the court shall review all rulings on objections to evidence made during the trial.

(C) Upon the general ground that the verdict, decision, findings of fact, or judgment is not justified by the evidence, the court shall review the sufficiency of the evidence.

(3) Time for Motion.

A motion for a new trial shall be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after entry of the judgment.

(4) Time for Serving Affidavits.

When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits, they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 10 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(5) Questions to be Considered in New Trial.

A new trial, if granted, shall be only a new trial of the question or questions with respect to which the verdict or decision is found erroneous, if separable. If a new trial is ordered because the damages are excessive or inadequate and granted solely for that reason, the verdict shall be set aside only in respect of the damages and shall stand in all other respects.

(6) After Service by Publication.

(A) When judgment has been rendered on service by publication, and the defendant has not appeared, a new trial may be granted upon application of the defendant for good cause shown by affidavit, made within one year after entry of the judgment.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(B) Execution of the judgment shall not be stayed unless the defendant gives bond, approved by the court, in double the amount of the judgment or value of the property adjudged, payable to the plaintiff in the judgment if, after the new trial, the court's decision is against defendant.

(7) Number of New Trials.

Not more than two new trials shall be granted to either party in the same action.

(8) Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment.

A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be filed no later than 15 days after entry of judgment.

(9) Specification on Grounds of New Trial in Order.

No order granting a new trial shall be made and entered unless the order specifies with particularity the ground or grounds on which the new trial is granted.

(g) Relief from Judgment or Order.

(1) Clerical Mistakes.

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time on its own initiative or on motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. During pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the Rincon Appellate Court.

(2) Correction of Error in Record of Judgment.

(A) When a mistake in a judgment is corrected as provided by subsection (g)(1) above, thereafter the execution shall conform to the judgment as corrected.

(B) Where there is a mistake, miscalculation or misrecital of a sum of money, or of a name, and there is among the records of the action a decision or instrument of writing whereby such judgment may be safely corrected, the court shall on application and after notice, correct the judgment accordingly.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(3) Mistake; Inadvertence; Surprise; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc.

On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under this Section; (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released or discharged, or a prior judgment on which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be filed within a reasonable time, and for reasons set forth in (1), (2) and (3), above, but not more than six months after the judgment or order was entered or proceeding was taken. A motion under this subsection does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This Section does not limit the power of the court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant served by publication as provided by this CCP or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. The procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in this CCP or by an independent action.

(h) Harmless Error.

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. The court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(i) Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment.

(1) Stay on Injunctions.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal.

(2) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment.

In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of judgment or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings, or when justice so requires in other cases until such time as the court may fix.

(3) Injunction Pending Appeal.

When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

(4) Stay of Judgment Directing Execution of Instrument; Sale of Perishable Property and Disposition of Proceeds.

(A) If the judgment or order appealed from directs the execution of a conveyance or other instrument, the execution of the judgment or order shall not be stayed by the appeal until the instrument is executed and deposited with the clerk of the court to abide by the judgment of the Rincon Court of Appeals.

(B) A judgment or order directing the sale of perishable property shall not be stayed, but the proceeds of the sale shall be deposited with the clerk of the court to abide by the judgment of the Rincon Court of Appeals.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(5) Stay in Favor of the Rincon Band or Agency or Enterprise or Entity Thereof.

When an appeal is taken by the Rincon Band or an officer, agency, enterprise or entity thereof or by direction of any department of the Rincon Band and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

(6) Stay of Final Judgment.

When a court has ordered a final judgment upon multiple claims or involving multiple parties, the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

(j) Appeal of Judgment.

(1) Appeal of Judgment.

Any party may appeal a judgment or order entered by the Rincon Civil Trial Court by filing such appeal with the Rincon Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rincon Appellate Court Rules and Procedures, RTC § 3.800.

(2) Time for Filing Appeal.

The appeal must be filed within 30 days of entry of the judgment or order.

§ 3.316 PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES

(a) Injunctions.

(1) Preliminary Injunctions.

The court may issue a preliminary injunction only on notice to the adverse party. Before or after beginning the hearing on a motion for a preliminary injunction, the court may advance the trial on the merits and consolidate it with the hearing. Even when consolidation is not ordered, evidence that is received on the motion and that would be admissible at trial becomes part of the trial record and need not be repeated at trial.

RINCON CIVIL TRIAL COURT – CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rincon Tribal Ordinance § 3.310

(2) Temporary Restraining Order.

(A) Issuance without Notice. The court may issue a temporary restraining order without written or oral notice to the adverse party or its attorney only if (1) specific facts in an affidavit or a verified complaint clearly show that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition, and (2) the movant's attorney certifies in writing any efforts made to give notice to the adverse party and the reasons why it should not be required.

(B) Contents; Expiration. Every temporary restraining order issued without notice must state the date and hour it was issued; describe the injury and (1) state why the injury is irreparable, (2) state why the order was issued without notice, and (3) be promptly filed in the clerk's office and entered in the record. The order expires 14 days from the time after entry, unless, for good cause, the court extends it for a like period or the adverse party consents to a longer extension. The reasons for an extension must be entered in the record.

(C) Expediting the Preliminary-Injunction Hearing. If the order is issued without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction must be set for hearing at the earliest possible time, taking precedence over all other matters except hearings on older matters of the same character. At the hearing, the party who obtained the order must proceed with the motion; if the party does not, the court must dissolve the order.

(D) Motion to Dissolve. On two (2) days' notice to the party who obtained the order without notice--or on shorter notice set by the court--the adverse party may appear and move to dissolve or modify the order. The court must then hear and decide the motion as promptly as justice requires.

(3) Security.

The court may issue a preliminary injunction or a temporary restraining order only if the movant gives security in an amount that the court considers proper to pay the costs and damages sustained by any party found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. The Rincon

Band, its officers, its enterprises, its agencies and its entities are not required to give security.

(4) Contents and Scope of Every Injunction and Restraining Order.

(A) Contents. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order must:

- (i) State the reasons why it issued;
- (ii) State its terms specifically; and
- (iii) Describe in reasonable detail--and not by referring to the complaint or other document--the act or acts restrained or required.

(B) Persons Bound. The order binds only the following who receive actual notice of it by personal service:

- (i) The parties;
- (ii) The parties' officers, successors, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys; and
- (iii) Other persons who are aiding, abetting, or acting in concert or participation with anyone described in subparts (i) and (ii) above.
